

CIFA CODE OF CONDUCT

Match Officials

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behaviour in the game. Within the Cayman Islands Football Association, the behaviour of all involved in the game is the biggest concern. This includes the abuse of match officials, the unacceptable behaviour of players, and over competitive parents, spectators and coaches on the sideline.

Play your part and observe The Cayman Islands Football Association's (the "Association") Code of Conduct in everything you do.

I will:

- Be honest and completely impartial at all times;
- Apply the Laws of the Game and competition rules fairly and consistently;
- Manage the game in a positive, calm and confident manner;
- Deal with all instances of violence, aggression, unsporting behaviour, foul play and other misconduct;
- Never tolerate offensive, insulting or abusive language or behaviour from players and officials;
- Support my match official colleagues at all times;
- Set a positive personal example by promoting good behaviour and showing respect to everyone involved in the game;
- Communicate with the players and encourage Fair Play;
- Respond in a clear, calm and confident manner to any appropriate request for clarification by the team captains;
- Prepare physically and mentally for every match; and
- Complete and submit, accurate and concise reports within the time limit required for games in which I officiate.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any or all of the following actions may be taken by the Cayman Islands Football Association (CIFA):

- Be required to meet with a CIFA or CIRA Refereeing Official;
- Be required to meet with the CIFA Referee's Committee; and
- Be required to meet with the CIFA or CIRA Disciplinary Committee
