

CIFA CODE OF CONDUCT

Players

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behaviour in the game. Within the Cayman Islands Football Association, the behaviour of all involved in the game is the biggest concern. This includes the abuse of match officials, the unacceptable behaviour of players, and over competitive parents, spectators and coaches on the sideline. Players want a referee for every game, yet every year we lose officials because of the abuse and intimidation they receive on and off the pitch. Respect your referee today and you may just get one for every match this season.

Play your part and observe The Cayman Islands Football Association's (the "Association") Code of Conduct in everything you do.

On and off the field, I will:

- Adhere to the Laws of The Game;
- Display and promote high standards of behaviour;
- Promote Fair Play;
- Always respect the match officials' decisions;
- Never engage in public criticism of the match officials;
- Never engage in public criticism of the Association officials and staff;
- Never engage in offensive, insulting or abusive language or behaviour;
- Never engage in bullying, intimidation or harassment;
- Speak to my team-mates, the opposition and my coach/manager with respect;
- Remember we all make mistakes; and
- Win or lose with dignity. Shake hands with the opposing team and the referee at the end of every game.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any or all of the following actions may be taken by my club, league or the Cayman Islands Football Association:

- Be required to apologise to team-mates, the other team, referee or team manager;
- Receive a warning from the coach;
- Receive a written warning from the club committee;
- Be required to attend an Association education course;
- Be dropped or substituted;
- Be suspended from training;
- Not be selected for the team;
- Be required to serve a suspension;
- Be fined; and
- Be released from the club.
